

Bat

Size	2
Amount of food eaten	2
Time hibernating	4

- eat insects, moths, and beetles
- hibernate in disused buildings, old trees and caves
- hibernate from November to April

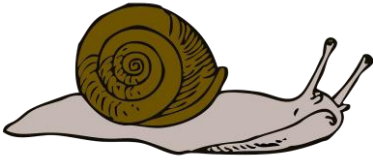

Badger

Size	3
Amount of food eaten	4
Time hibernating	0

- eat insects, small animals, worms, fungi and fruit
- live in woodland and farmland
- do not hibernate

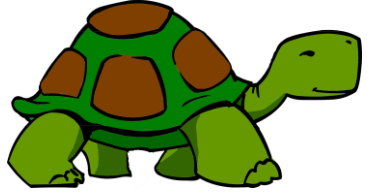

Snail

Size	0
Amount of food eaten	1
Time hibernating	5

- eat leaves, fungi and fruit
- lives in its shell during winter
- can hibernate for up to three years

Tortoise

Size	2
Amount of food eaten	2
Time hibernating	2

- eat leaves, grass and flowers
- lives in its shell during winter
- hibernates for up to ten weeks

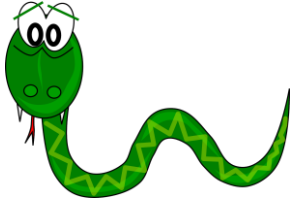

Hedgehog

Size	3
Amount of food eaten	3
Time hibernating	4

- eat insects, slugs, beetles snails and frogs
- hibernate in dry leaves and grass
- hibernate from December to April

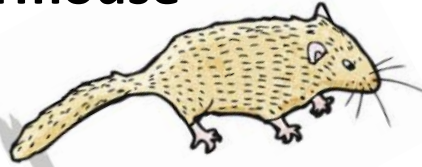

Snake - Adder

Size	1
Amount of food eaten	2
Time hibernating	4

- eat small mammals such as mice and voles
- live in woodland and grassland
- hibernate from October to March

Dormouse

Size	1
Amount of food eaten	2
Time hibernating	4

- eat insects, flowers, fruit and nuts
- hibernate rolled up in a small ball on the ground in leaves
- hibernate from October to April

Bear

Size	4
Amount of food eaten	4
Time hibernating	4

- eat grass, roots, insects and berries
- hibernate in caves or digs a den
- hibernate from October to April

Hibernation - Cards

Bumblebees

Size	0
Amount of food eaten	1
Time hibernating	4

- eat pollen and nectar
- hibernate in hives
- hibernate from December to March

Ladybirds

Size	0
Amount of food eaten	1
Time hibernating	3

- eat insects, such as aphids
- live on plants and vegetation
- hibernate from November to April

Moth

Size	0
Amount of food eaten	1
Time hibernating	3

- eat nectar and flowers
- hibernate as a caterpillar in vegetation
- hibernate from December to March

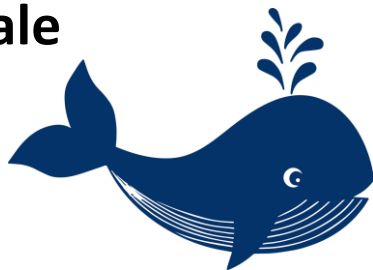

Frog

Size	1
Amount of food eaten	2
Time hibernating	1

- eat insects, slugs and worms
- live in the mud in ponds during winter
- hibernates from February to March

Whale

Size	5
Amount of food eaten	5
Time hibernating	0

- eat small plankton and krill
- live in the ocean
- do not hibernate

Penguin

Size	2
Amount of food eaten	3
Time hibernating	0

- eat krill
- live on the ice in Antarctica
- do not hibernate

Polar Bear

Size	4
Amount of food eaten	5
Time hibernating	0

- eat seals
- live on the ice in the Arctic
- do not hibernate

Albatross

Size	3
Amount of food eaten	3
Time hibernating	0

- eat fish
- live on the coast in Antarctica
- do not hibernate

Hibernation - Cards