

Timeline: Awakening Seas

Tough Question - For older people.
Read the Information panels to find out
When was Archelon - the giant turtle alive?

The Cylinder Tank

What animals live in here?
Guess how many there are.

← Draw them in the tank.

The Fossil Wall

How many big fossils can you see on the fossil wall?

Lagoon Of Light and Coral Realm

Pick one lagoon fish. Look at it for one minute.
Draw it in the tank.
Don't forget its fins, gills and tail.

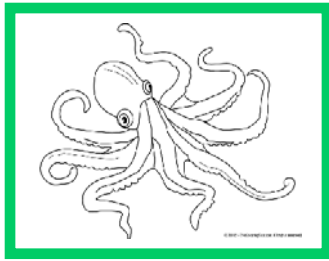

How big is your fish?

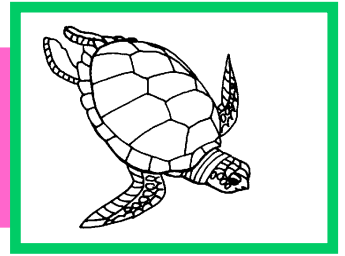

How many fins does it have?

List the colours on your fish:

Tough Question - For older people.
Read the Information panels to find out
What is the bonnethead shark's sixth sense?

Endless Ocean

Are any of the fish bigger than you are?

Find the horse-eye jacks.
Do we swim together or
on our own?

How many sharks can you see?

Draw 2 different sharks.

Label the fins, gills and tails.

Northern Seas

What colours are the fish in this tank?

Can you see anything hiding on the sandy floor?

Tough Questions - For older people.
Read the Information panels to find out

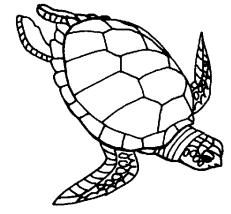

How can tiny creatures like barnacles and mussels be a threat to oil rigs?

Find three reasons why the number of cod in the North Sea has dropped

The Twilight Zone

Tough Questions - For older people.
Read the Information panels to find out

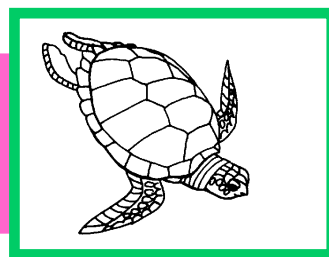

Which of the animals here might you have eaten - what about the Norway lobster?

Pick one animal. Find out 2 things about it.

Hullabaloo

Hullabaloo

What animals live around the River Humber?

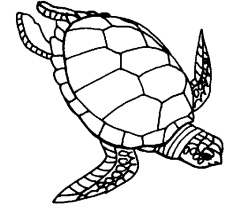

Draw some of them here.

Kingdom of Ice

Tough Questions - For older people.
Read the Information panels to find out

Why do you think penguins have black backs and white fronts?

Why don't polar bears eat penguins?
(it's not cos they can't get the wrappers off)

Surviving the Cold

What would you need to survive in the cold?

Draw the clothes and equipment you would need onto the outline of the body

How do you think animals like penguins and polar bears survive in the cold?