

Health and social care professionals often work with people with disabilities. Careful planning of space creates better access for all.

Design a computer workstation for a wheelchair user.

Accessible spaces

Fact sheet

- To allow wheelchair users room to move in front of a computer there should be a clear space of 1850mm x 2100mm.
- Eye height typically ranges from 960mm to 1250mm for wheelchair users.
- The eye should line up with the top third of the screen.
- Eyes should be about 600mm from the screen.