At work, doing things in an efficient order is important. You need to be logical and think things through.
Here is a tricky puzzle to develop your logic skills.

create maths

Place counters in the top and bottom rows like this.

Moving one counter at a time and by sliding only (no jumps allowed!) swap over the two rows of counters.